ABOUT

Lisa Viktoria Cowell has a background in Equine, Leisure & Sports, and international Sports & Tourism. Working almost a decade in corporate HR, sales and tech recruitment, she attended industry events worldwide.

Through Forst Horses, she offers transparent and discrete verification and the tryout of German sporthorses by an independent advisor.

Lisa has collaborated with renowned companies in the business and equestrian world.

3WAY EVALUATION

Buying a horse can be both exciting and nerve-wracking.

Choosing the right equine partner involves making an emotional decision while considering traits that benefit your relationship & goals long-term.

Studies suggest successful horse-rider combinations result from not only matching rider skills with horse training levels but to focus on compatible character traits.

Forst horses enables you to make smart buying decisions and to save time in the scouting process.

Verify your dream horse from home!

EXCELLENT PARTNERS

We work together with the best to arrange vetting, care & worldwide transportation for you.
